

La Maison Rose Painting Week

10-17th June 2025

Join us on this special one-week painting course led by artist Francesca Shakespeare

La Maison Rose is an artistic paradise with beautiful gardens and a large airy studio, situated in the rolling hills of Quercy, distinguished for its medieval towns and vibrant markets.

This Painting Week offers the perfect creative holiday for painters, their partners and friends.

"I loved the opportunity for each of us to develop in our own way while working companionably in a group"

Jane, 2024

About Francesca

Francesca is an Oxford-based artist, well known for her vibrant plein air paintings, and expert knowledge of materials and techniques.

As a teacher, her experience is wide and varied. With a passionate belief in the power of creativity and community, Francesca has led workshops and projects for decades, working closely with the Ashmolean Museum, the Ruskin School of Art, and numerous schools across Oxfordshire.

The Course

The course caters to individual needs, allowing each painter to develop in their own direction. All abilities are welcome, including beginners.

The course focuses on:

- Plein Air painting
- Sketching in markets
- Exploration of techniques and materials
- Understanding of Colour

What's Included

- Luxury Accommodation
- 6 full days of tuition
- Use of studio, equipment, and some materials
- Guided walks for partners
- Home-cooked meals, wine, tea and coffee
- Heated swimming pool
- Restaurant lunch beside the Abbey in Moissac
- Transfer to and from Toulouse airport or Agen train station

Prices start from £1,450

Visit our website for further details:

maisonrose-moissac.com/artweeks/

Francesca: +44 7976822773